CD# 26-651132 (09/14/2026) — Flock was used during a trespass investigation, resulting in two arrests.

The Cheektowaga Police Department's experience demonstrates that Flock technology is used as an investigative resource across a range of public-safety incidents. Flock data is used in conjunction with traditional investigative methods, officer observations, witness information, and other available evidence. A Flock alert or camera hit does not, by itself, establish that a person is involved in criminal activity.
