SECTION F: Challenges and Highlights

1. Challenges: Describe the challenges encountered during the reporting period, as well any as efforts to overcome the challenges.
   Description: One challenge that DCPD faced in Q6 was staffing the ORT Task Force due to an ongoing staffing shortage.

   SMPD experienced delays in deploying ALPR cameras in Q6 due to permitting issues. The agency is working closely with the City of San Mateo and the State to obtain the necessary permits for installing the remaining cameras in the upcoming quarters.

2. Project Highlights. Describe any highlights and/or accomplishments during the current reporting period.
   Description: DCPD experienced delays in ALPR camera installations over the past few quarters due to supply chain issues, installer availability, and permitting challenges. Those issues have since been resolved, and the last tranche of cameras was successfully installed in Q6. All the grant-funded ALPRs are now operational.

   During this reporting period, the collaboration and partnership between grant partners and loss prevention (LP) were effective. For each deployment, partner agencies ensured that most retailers were represented at the briefing, allowing officers and LP agents to align their tactics and strategies in the field. Additionally, information sharing between law enforcement and retailers was effective. Several LP agents conducted extensive investigations into ORT crews and shared information with their law partners prior to task force deployments.

   The ongoing efforts of the three agencies to communicate and maintain strong relationships with retailers and their loss prevention staff have led to success with arrests of prolific ORT suspects and crews. Since the beginning of the grant, our multi-agency ORT Task Force had successful deployments that led to approximately arrests for ORT-adjacent offenses, and 237 case referrals to the DA's Office due to some cases involving multiple arrests. Overall, shopping centers and retailer partners within our jurisdictions have welcomed our ORT Task Force, and some have participated in our zero-theft tolerance days, strengthening our collaborative efforts to combat ORT.

SECTION G: Additional Narrative

1. Additional Narrative. Please provide any additional information necessary to detail the project's progress during the reporting period. Any additional information that is project specific, which may help inform project progress, may be included here. If providing additional details in reference to a section within this report, please cite relevant sections.

   Description: On Metrics for ORT and MVT/MVAT: There currently exists a challenge in the literature regarding the most appropriate way of measuring ORT at any point prior to the prosecutorial decision to pursue a case with an ORT related charge. Due to this conceptual challenge and faced with the need to calculate short-term statistics that may be collected at the moment of occurrence or shortly thereafter, we interpret ORT and MVT/MVAT aggregate figures as potential incidents/arrests/referrals related to ORT and MVT/MVAT. An alternative interpretation could also be ORT-adjacent or MVT/MVAT adjacent events. Incidents were calculated using CAD calls with call types that were related to the category in question. Any incidents that were communicated to the police departments through alternative avenues are not included in these estimates. In order to most appropriately count cases and arrests related to ORT, we implemented textual analysis that interpreted in case/arrest charge description fields terms closely associated with retail theft, grand/petty theft, and shoplifting. Additionally, we cross-checked these numbers with the specific charge numbers associated with those calls. Similarly, for MVT/MVAT, we identified the case/arrest charge descriptions that were related to vehicle theft, vehicle accessory theft, and tampering with vehicles. Throughout this reporting process and hereafter, we will continue to analyze the methodology used to count these events for reliability and consistency. Acknowledging the challenges mentioned above, we include below some additional numbers that refer to the specific number of arrests and referrals made with an Organized Retail Theft charge: 17 Cases, 18 Arrests and 14 DA referrals. Additionally, there were 84 prior theft cases with arrests and 5 prior motor vehicle theft cases with arrests in this reporting period. Incidents for ORT-specific numbers were calculated using the total number of cases with offenses specifically related to ORT and are not calculated using CAD incoming calls.
