Dear Jodi Ferreira,

Confirmed — 2602410200 is the number I am inquiring on. It is not a transcription error on my end.

Subject: California Public Records Request :: W013309-082426

Body:

RE: PUBLIC RECORDS REQUEST of August 24, 2026, Reference # W013309-082426

Dear Brian C,

The City received the following request from you on August 24, 2026.

Under the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code section 7920.000 et seq.), I request the following record.

As you are aware, the Department assigns a case number to each report it takes and maintains those reports in its records management system.

1. Any incident, crime, or case report bearing case number 2602410200.

A copy redacted as the Department deems necessary is acceptable. If no record bearing this case number exists, please state that in writing.

Please provide the determination required by Government Code section 7922.535 within 10 days, in writing, per section 7922.540. If the record is withheld in whole or in part, please identify the exemption relied upon and the basis on which no reasonably segregable portion could be released under Government Code section 7922.525(b).

Brian

In accordance with California Government Code § 7922.530(a) and Rogers v. Superior Court (1993) 19 Cal.App.4th 469, 481, the City would like to fulfill its duty to assist requesters in making a focused request. To that end, the City requests your reply to this message with the following clarification:

We would like to confirm the incident number you provided to avoid any possible typos. Is 2602410200 the incident you are inquiring on?

For the City to continue processing your request, please provide this information within 30 days of this message. If the City does not receive clarification within 30 days, we will interpret the lack of response to mean that the request has been withdrawn and will close this request.

When we receive your response to this message, we can continue working to complete your request as required by law. If there are any costs associated with the responsive records, we will provide you with an estimate before releasing. Thank you in advance for your clarification.

If you have any questions, please reply to this message.

Sincerely,

Jodi Ferreira
