Bryan mayoral can[redacted]tinue funding the cameras in their cu[redacted]

"In its current form, I do not believe that Flock is the right way to go. If it came before this council, I would have voted not to renew the funding, because I think it has lost the confidence of the people," Peña said.

College Station Mayor Candidates address housing costs

College Station mayoral candidate Elizabeth Cunha pointed to density bonus programs as a tool to encourage entry-level housing.

"So, we do have some solid programs in place to help. I'm for density bonuses in apartment complexes to encourage some people to have some entry-level housing. I want affordable housing, but I can't promise you a fix," Cunha said.

College Station City Council Place 5 candidate Bob Yancy, who is also running for Mayor, said development fees contribute to rising housing costs for young families.

"All of those fees roll downhill; they go from the developer to the builder, and then the builder puts

Second forum planned for Oct. 19

Another candidate forum is planned for Monday, Oct. 19, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at the Brazos Center. Organizers say it will feature five Bryan City Council races.
