Since August 2022, SMPD has used the federally mandated National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS). NIBRS collects detailed information on individual criminal incidents, including offenses, victims, offenders, and locations, representing a significant change from prior reporting systems. This approach provides greater transparency in crime reporting. Data is based on initiated reports and is subject to change, as incidents may be reclassified and information is updated on an ongoing basis.

- *The 5 murders reflected in 2024 are the result of 2 domestic violence homicides resulting in multiple casualties.

COMMUNITY WELLNESS AND CRISIS RESPONSE TEAM (CWCRT)

CWCRT Mental Health Clinicians Briana Fair and Linda Allen co-responded to 258 total crisis related calls for service, 57 of which resulted in 5150 holds. Calls ranged from attempted suicides, 5150's, welfare checks, and disturbances. A recent study* indicates the co-responder pilot program we were part of reduced the frequency of involuntary psychiatric detentions by 16.5%. For additional statistics, visit the SMPD transparency page under Mental Health.

*Thomas S. Dee & Jaymes Pyne - John W. Gardner Center, Stanford University, Stanford, CA

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM (DVERT)

Since August, our new Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse (CORA) and DVERT Advocate Kayla Adams co-responded to 37 total calls for service ranging from disturbances, welfare checks, and domestic violence-related concerns. She provided direct support to 47 individuals experiencing domestic violence. Services included DV education, safety planning, referrals to legal aid, mental health support, housing resources, restraining order assistance, danger assessment, emotional support, victim advocacy, and court accompaniment.

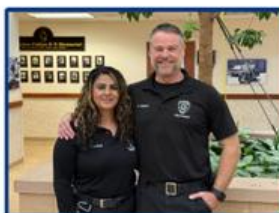

HOMELESS OUTREACH TEAM (HOT)

HOT Team Coordinators Victoria Asfour and David Johnson, handled 1,204 calls for service involving homelessness, of which 1,077 were proactively initiated by them. Outreach is the bread and butter of this program, as is collaboration.

Through proactive outreach, HOT provided 553 cases with management services, supported 11 individuals with permanent housing, and transitioned 54 individuals into temporary shelter.

In the last 7 months of 2025, HOT has supported members of the RV community and/or those living in their vehicles, by facilitating access to resources, education, and alternative housing options, resulting in a reduction of those living in vehicles from 50 to 15.

The San Mateo Police Department's H.O.P.E. Team is a multidisciplinary unit that addresses behavioral health, homelessness, and domestic violence through coordinated, compassionate responses. Officers are paired with mental health clinicians, a Homeless Outreach Team, and a domestic violence advocate to provide de-escalation, victim support, outreach, and connections to services. Through strong partnerships, the H.O.P.E. Team promotes public safety, stability, and long-term solutions.

COMMUNITY SERVICE OFFICERS (CSO)

CSOs enhance police services and community relations by supporting the department by handling non-emergency calls for service and follow-up tasks, including processing crime scenes, taking police reports with no immediate suspect, and analyzing cases to develop leads. They work closely with officers and detectives to advance investigations and help solve cases. CSOs also provide administrative support and assist with community outreach.

CRIME REDUCTION UNIT (CRU)

CRU's primary mission is to combat street-level gang, narcotics, and vice-related criminal activity, including human trafficking. The unit also supports the Criminal Investigations Bureau and Patrol Division through targeted enforcement, surveillance, search warrant execution, fugitive apprehension, and expert court testimony. They are also responsible for Gang Registrants.

DOWNTOWN UNIT (DTU)

DTU maintains the safety, accessibility, and quality of life downtown and citywide. Officers address disorderly conduct and nuisance issues, actively problem-solve community concerns, and connect individuals experiencing homelessness with appropriate resources. They engage with merchants, residents, and visitors, support city and community events, and collaborate with local organizations and service providers. Through professional, compassionate enforcement and proactive community engagement, the unit ensures our downtown remains a safe hub to visit.

TRAFFIC UNIT

The San Mateo Police Department, in partnership with the City of San Mateo Department of Public Works, works to keep our community safe by maintaining and monitoring roadways, sidewalks, bike lanes, signage, and traffic signals, while enforcing traffic laws for all who travel through San Mateo.

Through the Three E's of Traffic Safety—Education, Enforcement, and Engineering—the Traffic Unit takes a comprehensive approach to protect motorists, cyclists, and pedestrians, keeping streets safe, efficient, and accessible.

- Education: The Traffic Unit engages the community through outreach, school programs, and social media campaigns to promote safe driving, cycling, and pedestrian practices that prevent collisions and save lives.
- Enforcement: Motor Officers target high-collision, high-congestion, and high-complaint areas, addressing speeding, distracted driving, and impaired driving. They also manage traffic during collisions, special events, and civic functions.
- Engineering: In partnership with Public Works, the unit evaluates roadway safety concerns, using data and traffic patterns to recommend improvements in road design, signage, signal timing, and infrastructure.

Parking Enforcement

To better serve our community and address evolving parking needs, the City of San Mateo contracts parking enforcement with LAZ Parking to address Downtown parking enforcement, the Residential Permit Parking Program (RPPP), street sweeping enforcement, and metered and commercial zone parking.

Police personnel continue to oversee our Abandoned Vehicle Abatement Unit and other specialized enforcement requiring a community policing approach.

Reminder, meters are FREE on Holidays, Sundays, and weeknights after 6pm.

Equipment & Technology

In 2018, the agency equipped all sworn officers with body-worn cameras (BWC) and later expanded the program to include all Community Service Officers. These cameras support evidence collection, document officer interactions, and reinforce the department's commitment to transparency and accountability.

The San Mateo Police Department deploys automated license plate readers (ALPR) on patrol vehicles, fixed locations, and mobile trailers to enhance public safety. ALPR technology assists in locating stolen vehicles, missing persons, and wanted violent offenders. The system does not retain private vehicle registrant information and collects only publicly visible license plate data, along with the associated date, time, location, and vehicle image.

ALPRs: 70

- Associated with 421 cases, which resulted in 83 arrests
- Associated with 70 or 58% of 120 total recovered stolen vehicles

Dash Cams: 38

Our San Mateo Connect Program allows you to either register the fact you have security cameras at your location, or (Fusus) integration enables you to share live video feeds with us in emergencies to improve community safety and law enforcement response. Access to your cameras is conditional upon mutual agreement between you and the San Mateo Police Department; and will only be accessed for reactive monitoring of criminal activity, during a criminal incident or emergency at or near your location.

Real Time Information Center (RTIC)

The San Mateo Police Department launched its Real-Time Information Center (RTIC), marking a significant advancement in the use of technology to enhance public safety. The RTIC is staffed by trained personnel from Dispatch and Patrol, who provide real-time intelligence to support officers in the field and improve decision-making during active incidents.

Initial efforts focus on integrating critical data into Fusus, the department's primary platform for live video feeds and intelligence sharing. Through voluntary participation, businesses and residents may purchase a Fusus device that allows officers to access camera footage in real time during incidents. Information about the program is available on page 30 under San Mateo Connect.

The Center represents an important step toward establishing a modern, technology-driven hub that strengthens operational effectiveness and community safety.

RTIC ASSISTS: 827 Incidents, associated with 144 arrests

TOP 3 CALL TYPES:

1. Disturbance Calls - 13.91%
2. Suspicious Persons - 13.78%
3. Welfare Checks - 9.55%

HIGHLIGHT

In a recent violent incident, the suspect had left before officers arrived. An RTIC operator identified a prior contact with a neighboring agency, which led to locating a vehicle associated with the suspect. Using an ALPR search, officers quickly found the vehicle and safely arrested the suspect within two hours of the initial call, thanks to intelligence provided by the RTIC.

DRONES

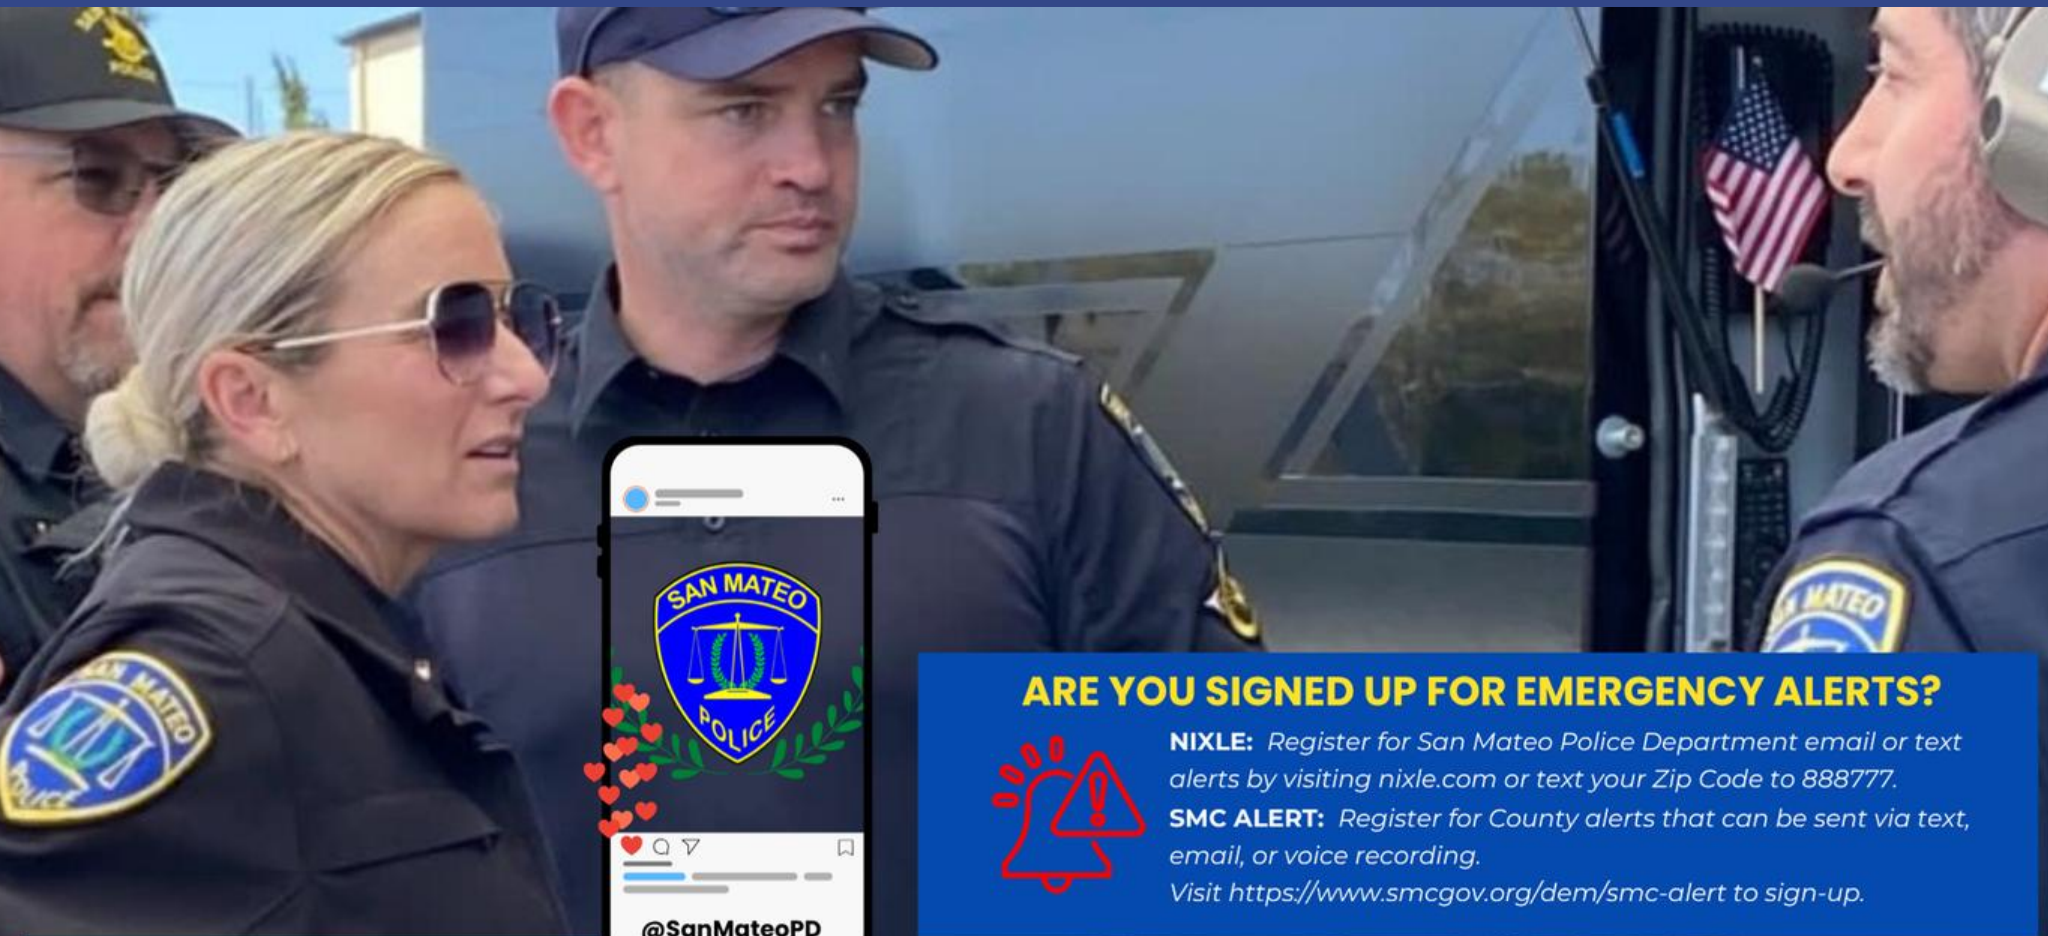

Our Drone as First Responder (DFR) Program allows us to deploy rooftop drones from 3 locations strategically placed within San Mateo to arrive at a scene quickly to provide initial intelligence, helpful for responding officers, and in some instances, will arrive before the first dispatched officer.

All of our drone pilots attend a 3-day POST certified pilots course and obtain a Part 107 Pilots License per the FAA. We do quarterly team training and ongoing training throughout the year.

Drones: 16
Drone Operators: 20 pilots
Drone Deployments: 744
Drone Flights: 2,225
Flight Hours: 398.3
