Attitudes around safety in schools are at an all-time low. Uneasiness among parents, students, and employees negatively impacts trust, attendance, and staff retention in K-12 schools across the country.

Join us on Wednesday, December 14th at 2 PM ET / 11 AM PT for a Virtual Town Hall on school safety strategy with Fulton County Schools Paul Hildreth, Director of Safety & Security, and Mark Sulborski, Chief of Police. Learn how Georgia's fourth-largest school district partnered with local law enforcement to better protect their students, faculty, and staff during the alarming rise in violence and crimes.
