LATEST ISSUE Pierce County voters back Prop 1 to boost bus service 47% Read now →

PUBLIC SAFETY Sunday, November 1

Enumclaw police search for three suspects who cut down two license plate reader cameras

6 The Daily Tacoma team
From Sunday's edition · 1 min read · 2 sources

SHARE Email Facebook X Copy link

If you live in Enumclaw, police want to hear from you. Three people in an early-2000s white, short-body cargo van cut down two automated license plate readers around 12:55 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, the Enumclaw Police Department said. They left the camera equipment behind.

Two cameras, three suspects, one overnight cut

2	license plate readers cut down
3	suspects in a white cargo van
12:55 a.m.	when police say it happened

Sources: Courier-Herald, KOMO

Investigators recovered surveillance footage of the suspects and van, plus soil impressions and an item that may hold fingerprints or DNA. Cutting down the cameras is often called "deflocking," and the Courier-Herald notes eight cameras were damaged in Covington last August.

> "People may disagree about the use of ALPR technology. That disagreement does not authorize someone with criminal intent to destroy taxpayer-funded, city-owned property."
>
> Enumclaw Police Department

- Charge: first-degree malicious mischief, a Class B felony
- Penalty: up to 10 years, a $20,000 fine, or both
- Tips: call 360-825-3505 and cite Case No. 26-5044

Police are working several leads in the camera case

Evidence	Status
Surveillance footage	Recovered
Soil impressions	Recovered
Possible fingerprint or DNA item	Going to State Patrol crime lab
Cell-site location records	Warrants planned

Sources: Courier-Herald, KOMO

Sources: Courier-Herald, KOMO

Read it in the full edition →

⚡ Sunday's edition's TLDR

1. Puyallup wins the 4A SPSL title 31-24 in overtime
2. Whitworth scores the last 13 points to beat Pacific Lutheran
3. Prosser Piano & Organ closes after 71 years
4. Enumclaw police seek three suspects in license plate reader case
5. A Chase Sapphire Lounge is coming to Sea-Tac

Read the full edition →

📰 More from Sunday's edition

Read the edition →

3

rushing touchdowns for Puyallup's Malcolm Akuffo

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

🏈 Puyallup beats Graham-Kapowsin 31-24 in overtime to win the 4A SPSL title

If you missed Friday night at Sparks Stadium, you missed a good one. No. 1 Puyallup beat...

6 Sunday's edition Read →

Whitworth's Logan Lacio completed 25 of 34 passes

25 completed 9 not completed

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Whitworth scores the last 13 points to beat Pacific Lutheran 33-24 at Sparks Stadium

If you follow the Lutes, Saturday ended on a sour note. Whitworth scored the final 13 poi...

6 Sunday's edition Read →

📍 More public safety from local newsrooms

All public safety news →

KI

KING5.COM 43 minutes ago

Charges dismissed against man repeatedly punched by Auburn officer

The dismissal leaves open the possibility that prosecutors could refile charges as t...

KN

KIRO 7 NEWS SEATTLE 1 hour ago

Police: Woman accused of stealing truck tried to transfer vehicle titles into her name

A Pierce County man recovered his stolen pickup truck Tuesday after confronting a...

KN

KIRO 7 NEWS SEATTLE 2 hours ago

Charges dropped against man who was repeatedly punched on video by an Auburn PD officer

Charges have been dropped against a man who was repeatedly hit by an Auburn...

Also reported by KING5.com

KI

KING5.COM 3 hours ago

Charges dismissed against man seen being punched by Auburn officer in viral video

Auburn Prosecutors dismissed charges against the man repeatedly punched by a...

EXPLORE MORE

📰 All the news

🎉 Things to do

💼 Jobs

🗞️ Past issues

🧩 Games

Daily Tacoma

Send us a scoop, question, or feedback →

ADVERTISE

EVENTS

GAMES

SHOP

† Disclaimers and Legal

* Advertising

The company may also generate commission from affiliate links in the newsletter.

SUPPORT

Change your preferences or unsubscribe here.

Copyright © 2026 6AM City Inc, All rights reserved.

P.O. Box 2505, Greenville, SC 29602

Privacy Policy Terms of Service