

CRIME

Luling police: Man threatening mass shooting arrested after multi-agency pursuit

Police used the Flock Safety camera system to track the suspect, who had left the city and was traveling south on U.S. Highway 183.

Close Ad

Updated: 3:20 PM CDT May 19, 2026

LULING, Texas — A man allegedly threatened his wife and said he would carry out a mass shooting at a local business, the Luling Police Department said Friday, May 15.

Officers received reports of the incident around 9 a.m. and responded with assistance from the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office, Precinct 2 Constable's Office, Texas Department of Public Safety, and the Guadalupe and Gonzales county sheriff's offices.

Authorities secured the business, checked on employees and patrons, and searched the area for the suspect and his vehicle.

Police used the Flock Safety camera system to track the suspect, who had left the city and was traveling south on U.S. Highway 183. The Gonzales County Sheriff's Office located the vehicle, pursued it and took the suspect into custody.

The suspect's identity has not been released. It was not immediately clear what charges he may face.