https://www.kten.com/news/sherman-council-votes-to-remove-flock-cameras/article_52a5a883-a2e0-4d55-a732-656181177dda.html

Sherman council votes to remove Flock cameras

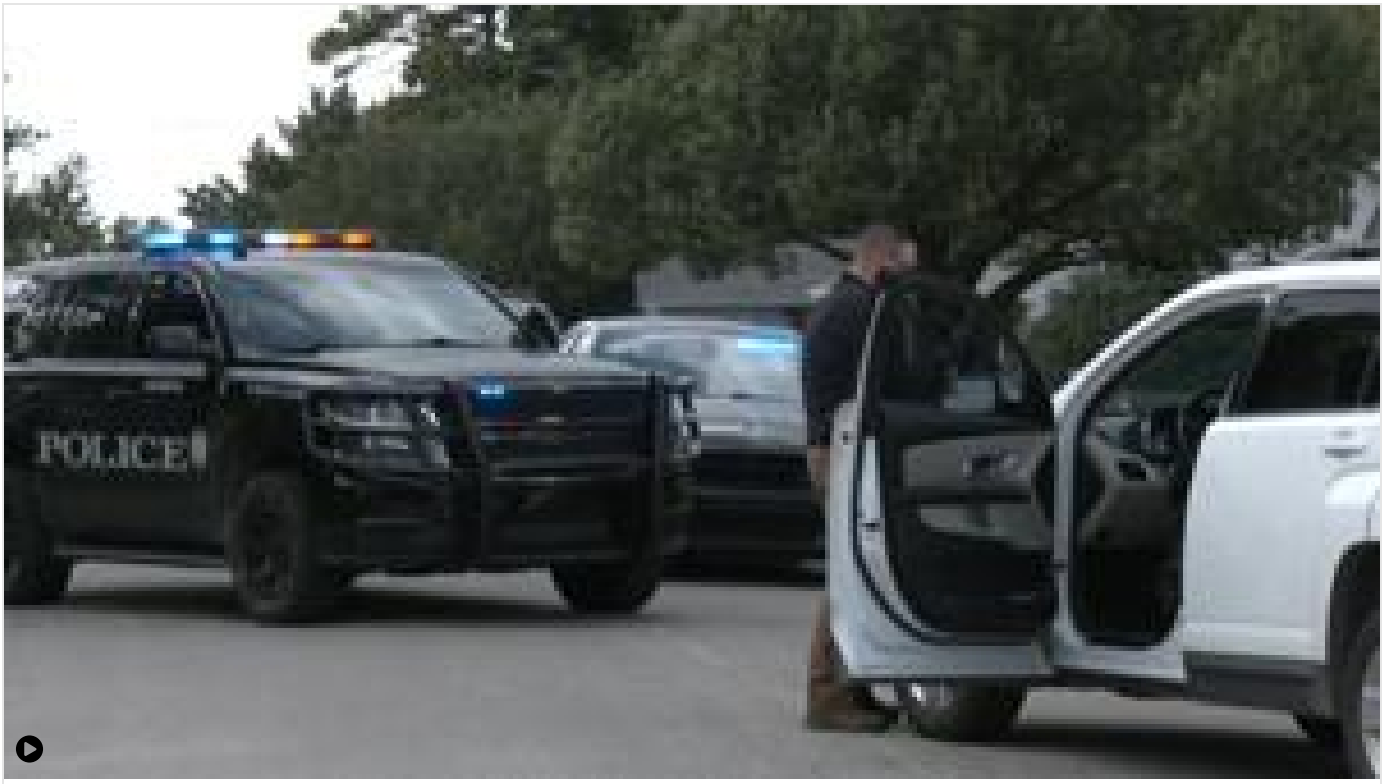
Sabine Welsh, KTEN News
Oct 20, 2026

SHERMAN, Texas (KTEN) — Flock surveillance cameras have been used by Sherman police as a tool to help track down criminals.

"There are concerns," said City Council member Clay Barnett.

KTEN.com

MORE INFORMATION



Flock cameras alert Ardmore police to stolen vehicle

Ardmore commissioner recall petitions gain enough signatures

Ardmore commissioners weigh in on Flock going to public vote

Ardmore commission unanimously decides to put Flock to a public vote

Ardmore commissioners respond to Flock recall petitions

Ardmore to review use of Flock cameras

Ardmore commissioner recall petition cleared for phase two

Thackerville ending use of Flock cameras

Flock camera debate turns political in Ardmore

Gunter City Council revisits license plate readers and data centers

Flock cameras unplugged in Marietta

Flock cameras raise privacy concerns

Ardmore police renew license plate camera contract

Sabine Welsh

KTEN News Reporter/Producer