SF NEWS

Sunday Links: Man Fatally Shot in Potrero Hill on Friday Night

By Zack Ruskin • October 18, 2026 · 12:18 PM PDT • % min read

PHOTO via Smith Collection/Gado/Getty Images

ADVERTISEMENT

- Canadian officials are reporting that multiple people were killed and dozens more injured following an explosion on Saturday at a Canadian military base in Alberta province. Canada Prime Minister Mark Carney is calling the incident "one of the worst tragedies for the forces on Canadian soil in peacetime." [ABC7]
- SFPD say a man was fatally shot near an elementary school in San Francisco's Potrero Hill neighborhood on Friday night. No further details, including information on the shooter, is currently available. [Chronicle]
- French President Emmanuel Macron voiced "anger" and "shame" over rioting and looting as nationwide protests over living conditions erupt across France. [NPR]
- The Golden State Valkyries beat the Atlanta Dream 68-64 at home yesterday to take Game 1 of the WNBA Finals. [ABC7]
- Emergency crews successfully airlifted a woman from a creek in Wine Country on Saturday after she fell from a cliff. [Chronicle]
- MapQuest has added a new "surveillance layer" feature that allows users to flag Flock cameras on routes. [KRON4]
- One child and one adult are dead in addition to hospitalizations for 11 others after a vehicle drove onto a Kansas soccer field on Saturday. [KTVU]
- A man from San Francisco has been arrested for allegedly striking two children, both six, as they were riding a bicycle in Half Moon Bay before fleeing the scene, per authorities. [Chronicle]

- Noah Adams, who hosted NPR's All Things Considered for 18 years, died on Friday at the age of 84. [NPR]

TOPICS

SF News | morning links

KEEP SFIST IN YOUR NEWS MIX

Make SFist a preferred source

Choose SFist to see more of our local reporting in Google's Top Stories.

Add to Preferred Sources

Zack Ruskin

Over a decade of experience covering arts, culture, and news in the Bay Area and beyond. Bylines include Vanity Fair, Rolling Stone, SFist, WaPo, Variety, SF Chronicle, and Alta Journal.

More from Zack Ruskin

CONTINUE READING

Latest from SFist

MORE STORIES →

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Comments

Comments load automatically as this section approaches.

LOAD COMMENTS NOW

SFiST

Independent San Francisco news, culture, food, and city life since 2004.

© 2026 Impress3 Media, Inc.