ALPR data collected through mass scanning is not exempt as records of investigation because it "is not conducted as part of a targeted inquiry into any particular crime." Administrative logs of who accessed the system are further removed from any investigation than the scan data the court addressed. Government Code Â§ 7922.525 requires disclosure of reasonably segregable non-exempt portions. I request the access logs the departme investigation records, aggregate counts of whether searches included case numbers cannot either.

-Regarding Â§ 1798.90.55(b): "ALPR information" is defined in Â§ 1798.90.5(b) as "information or data collected through the use of an ALPR system." Aggregate search counts and compliance rates are administrative metadata about how humans accessed the system
" not data collected by cameras. The California State Auditor
